

Parkview High School Swim and Dive Team Attendance and Discipline 2009-10

Attendance Rules and Attendance for Lettering*

90% attendance is mandatory if you wish to stay on the team.

- A. Absences will only be excused if they are academic (school) related, family emergency, or sickness WITH A DOCTORS NOTE. Please notify the coaches beforehand if you are missing due to a school or academic related activity.
- B. Christmas Break practices will NOT be make-up practices. Swimmers will have two free days to use at their discretion if they NEED to miss practice for family or religious activities.
- C. If at any time your unexcused absence total drops below the 90% mark, the coaches reserve the right to remove you from the team.
- D. Vacations will NOT be excused.
- E. You must attend all meets for which you are entered.
- F. Failure to be prepared for practice counts as an unexcused absence. This also applied to being thrown out of practice AT ANY TIME.
- G. These policies apply to ALL swimmers/divers and managers. Year round swimmers and high school divers attendance will be monitored through their respective coaches.
- H. If you meet the above requirements as well as the swimming/diving guidelines, you will be eligible for a letter.

Rules and Discipline*

1. The coaches are always right.
2. If any confusion arises about a situation or event, see rule #1.
3. In the event that one or both of the coaches are dead or incapacitated, rule #1 still applies.
4. Swimmers/Divers will conduct themselves in a manner representative of Parkview at all times.
5. Rules apply to practice, meets, AND bus trips (ESPECIALLY on the bus!)
6. Pictures and/or material that are posted on a personal website (such as My Space, Facebook, etc.) that violate ANY of Parkview's rules, including, but not limited to, the Drug and Alcohol policy will result in immediate removal from the team.

*The coaches reserve the right to remove anyone from the team for any reason they deem necessary including but not limited to the aforementioned rules.
